

Cell Phone Dissection

Purpose: to find and dissect a cell phone, find 50 different parts label each part and give a typed up sheet on the function of each part.

Materials: cell phone, dissection tools, and a computer or research device.

Procedure:

1. Take the cell phone apart keep the pieces to identify, research each part of the 50 and type up the function.
2. Place on a large piece of construction paper from Library.
3. Tape each one onto paper, 50 different parts.

Observations:

See the boards at the back of the room as an example.

Conclusion: Explain what you have learned in this lab.

Criteria:

50 marks for 50 different parts...

50 marks for 50 different part functions...

10 marks for the conclusion...

\

/110